Not a payout or sale guarantee

How this becomes part of your agreement

This example schedule illustrates the personalised item record BotherNot would send with its Sell-for-you Agreement. Before accepting, the customer reviews the item descriptions, condition, expected prices and the minimum sale price for each item. BotherNot will not complete a sale below the agreed minimum without express permission. The actual schedule and the accepted agreement are kept together.

No signatures or handwritten fields required.

BotherNot sends the actual agreement, personalised schedule and acceptance wording together. The customer accepts by replying clearly via WhatsApp or email. Any request to start during the 14-day cancellation period must be express.
